ABOUT ATP CHALLENGER TOUR

Formerly known as ATP Challenger Series (administered by the Association of Tennis Professionals), is a series of international men's professional tennis tournaments. The Challenger Tour events are the second-highest tier of tennis competition, behind the ATP Tour. The ITF World Tennis Tour tournaments are on the entry-level of international professional tennis competition. Players who succeed on the ATP Challenger Tour earn sufficient ranking points to become eligible for main draw or qualifying draw entry at ATP Tour tournaments. Players on the Challenger Tour are usually young players looking to advance their careers.

WHAT IS THE ATP CHALLENGER 50?

The Challenger 50 format focuses on adding valuable events for lower-ranked players during Grand Slams, Grand Slam qualifying and other low-priority ATP Challenger Tour weeks.

FORMAT :

Qualifying consists of 24 players battling it out for 6 spots in the main draw. 20 of the places in the draw are direct ranking acceptances and the rest are handed out by the organizers as wildcards. The main draw of the event consists of 32 players. Outside of the mentioned 6 qualifying spots, there are at least 22 direct acceptances and 3 more wildcards.

Players within 1-150 spots are unable to enter the tournament unless a player ranked between 51-100 is of the same nationality as the event (To be approved by ATP supervisors). A player ranked between 101-150 can receive an ATP approved wildcard regardless of nationality.
